STIPULATION TO MODIFY BRIEFING
SCHEDULE IN ADVANCE OF MAY 1, 2023
HEARING ON PRETRIAL MOTIONS; [PROPOSED] ORDER

Hon. John C. Coughenour

20 STIPULATION

21 THE PARTIES HEREBY STIPULATE, through their respective counsel, Assistant United 22 States Attorney, Brian W. Enos, on behalf of the government, and Doug Beevers, Esq., on behalf of
23 defendant Dylan Corral (“Corral”), to modify their current briefing schedule in advance of the court’s
24 May 1, 2023 hearing on pretrial motions as set forth below. Notably, this stipulation does not impact the 25 above May 1, 2023 hearing date, nor the previously set June 12, 2023 trial date:

CURRENT SCHEDULE

PROPOSED MODIFIED SCHEDULE

1.	Motions Filing –	March 20, 2023	March 27, 2023
2.	Opposition Filing –	April 10, 2023	April 17, 2023
3.	Reply Brief Filing –	April 24, 2023	Unchanged
4.	Hearing on Motions –	May 1, 2023	Unchanged

The parties base this stipulation on good cause and therefore ask the court to endorse this stipulation by way of formal order. Specifically,

1. On February 10, 2022, and pursuant to the parties' stipulation, the court set a June 12, 2023 trial date regarding this matter. Dkt. 26. On this same date and pursuant to this same stipulation, the court set a May 1, 2023 hearing date to address matters raised in pretrial motions, and pursuant to the above-referenced briefing schedule. Id.

2. After the court's issuance of the above order on February 10, 2023, counsel for the government has received separate sets of moving papers in support of motions to suppress evidence regarding two other matters venued here in the Eastern District of California. These matters include: (1) papers filed on February 27, 2023 by the defense in United States v. Binford, Case No. 1:20-cr-00150 ADA; and (2) papers filed on March 8, 2023 by the defense in United States v. Alcaraz, Case No. 1:21-cr-00205 ADA.

3. The Binford matters calls for the government to file its opposition papers by March 20, 2023. Counsel for the government is in-the-midst of meeting with four law enforcement witnesses who are expected to provide information supporting the opposition brief, as well as testify at the suppression hearing. Each work in different offices in the Fresno area. Counsel for the government inherited the Alcaraz matter from a departed colleague. As a result, an in-depth analysis of the case file will be necessary prior to drafting its response to the defense's motion in that case.

4. Counsel for the government contacted defense counsel in this case on March 13, resulting in the defense's gracious stipulation to the one-week extension by which to file moving papers and opposition briefs in this case. On this same date, counsel for the government also advised chambers of

1 the parties' intended stipulation in this regard.

2 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
